Welcome...

Howzit '69ers!

The Reunion Committee thanks all of you who have joined us this year to celebrate our 35th reunion. We have worked tirelessly to raise money for this event by working at the Pro Bowl in February, organizing a dinner at the Mid-Pacific Country Club in July, as well as planning a trip to Las Vegas this November.

We also want to thank those of you that sent in your information and pictures to help us with this slambook. Brian Taniguchi, Jo Ann (Oda) Oshima, Vincent Yim and Lisa (Lee) Reed all participated in assembling it. A special thank you to Courtney Harrington, Lani (Kuwana)'s husband, for doing the skambook design and layout as well as designing and producing the '69 memorabilia posters for our dinner, and for the spectacular name badges.

We hope you enjoy yourselves, and once again, we invite you to join our committee to plan yet another fun reunion!

Your 35th Reunion Committee

BRIAN ABE – What can we say that would not add to the legend of Brian Abe? Stay tuned to the Reunion dinner and Las Vegas trip as he has put his money down and he's on his way, baby!

ERNEST ABE – Our guy, Ernie, is now a Vice Principal at Waipahu High School, and has just marked his 28th year with the Dept. of Education. He claims to spend his free time golfing and drinking beer, but still finds time to go to his son's baseball games, and to spend time with his wife, Danette ('81 Kaiser). Ernie's claim to fame is being on national television at the Little League World Series game in Williamsport, Pennsylvania two years ago when his son, Jonathan (attending Highlands Intermediate), played on the team from Hawaii. Ernie has two other sons, Andrew (who attends Leeward Community College), and Matthew (also at Highlands).

ARTHUR AKANA – Does "Bus Strike" ring a bell with you? Well, it gave us the opportunity to see our militant bruddah Art on TV walking the picket line in the hot sun last year. Yessir, he was on the 6 pm news right up there with Teamster Boss Mel Kahele. (Where was our other bus-driving classmate, Merrill Miyasaki?) When he is not doing his proletarian thing, Arthur is a proud father of three college grads. He and wife, Josie, a St. Francis High grad, have been married for 32 years. He's been to all the Reunions and wants one of them to be like a Project Grad thing.

ROGER ALAMA – Roger has been "making house" in Kona. He is the Assistant Supervisor at HPM Building Supply for 12 years. Bruddah has 4 kids and 4 grandkids. His hobbies include swimming, diving, motorcycle riding, surfing, hiking and playing softball, volleyball and basketball. Sounds like he no mo time for work, but he says that's all he's been doing – WORK. He wants to retire in 3 years, so he gotta bus' his you-know-what now. He'll be paying the high interisland plane fares to join us for the Reunion and paying probably a cheaper amount to go Vegas with us in November.

BOBBIE AU – A lifelong Manoa resident, Bobbie is a secretary at PEP Hawaii. No, not the cheerleading people – they are a manufacturer's rep. She had her own business selling educational toys and books at various craft fairs and teachers' conferences. She has done some traveling, including a ride on the Goodyear Blimp and hopes to return to doing needlepoint and embroidery. She joined us for the last Vegas trip and will probably be coming with us when we go to the desert oasis in November. We guess she will be setting up the VCR to tape any UH football games or Korean soap operas she will miss while she is gone.

RUTH (KAUKA) BERGAU – Ruth is still a big honcho (Business Services Manager) at St. Francis Home Care. She is married to Hana High grad, Moses, who is a retired engineer from the Latter Day Saints Hawaii Temple. Her two children, Tammy and Leah, have promised Mom that they will give Roosevelt chance when they play for the black and red of the Kahuku Red Raiders. Mahalo plenty, girls.

GUY BLACKISTON - Guy continues to work at Servco Auto Parts Center, and when he is not trying to give the emergency room some business for job-related accidents, Guy likes to golf, swim, play darts, go to bars, go to UH football games, and keep up with friends. Guy has been a part of the Reunion Committee since our last reunion, and has always been a cheerful, positive influence on the rest of us.

EMILIA (ERUB) BOTT –

Holy Yogi Bear, Emilia is still a park ranger in Florida and she has enjoyed the experience, especially meeting people from around the world. She is married to husband Eugene who is an automotive manager originally from Michigan. She loves to go kayaking and canoeing and tries to return to the Islands for “re-charging” every couple of years.

NORBERT BUELSING – We believe that Norb’s stint as an Executive VP with Alexander & Baldwin (as in Big 5) is just a ploy to throw us off from his ultraliberal beliefs developed at Roosevelt (Nah, just kidding!). He has been married to Jill for 26 wonderful years and they have two children, Kelly who is at Colorado College and Michael who is attending a private school near Roosevelt that has buff and blue as its school colors. A good speaker in high school, Norb will be foolishly arguing in defense of depriving his children of a Roosevelt education. He still maintains contacts with subversive types like Cindy Lance and Riley “Bamboo Curtain” Lee.

LAVERNE (SABALBORO)

CARVALHO – Now a Maui resident, Laverne has loved her work as the office manager for construction giant Goodfellow Brothers for over 14 years. She is married to Farrington grad, Anthony, and has 2 children and 3 grandchildren. Her hobbies include scrapbooking and sewing and she also enjoys hula.

Extra copies of this extraordinary work of art are available for purchase. Drop by the registration desk.

She travels whenever she can and is bummed that she won’t be able to make our reunion activities because of previous family plans.

JANIE (DeNEEVE) CHANG –

We went separate Randy and Janie because they haven’t been separated for over 37 years. She and Randy have 2 children and 1 grandchild who Janie’s pride and joy.

Janie is a Special Ed teacher in the Vancouver (WA) School District. She is proud of the fact that she and Randy have made a good life in Washington state. (That’s really cool but we really miss them here!) She is also a professed “Randy groupie” which we do not find hard to believe. She enjoys hiking , gardening and playing tourist to explore the Pacific Northwest with Randy. She also sees a lot of classmate Tsulan Smith who is also in the Portland area. What we want to know is - how can somebody from Hawaii put up with all that rain and cloudy weather?

LISA (AU YOUNG) CHANG

– Lisa, Lisa, Lisa—what a good fun person to have on our Reunion Committee! Lisa’s refreshing outlook on everything makes our meetings something to look forward to. Lisa’s husband, Malcolm (’68 St. Louis), of 30 years, and her daughters, Lauren (attending UH Manoa) and Ashley (working at the Kimuraya Bakery in Kahala Mall) get to see Lisa whenever she’s not shopping, golfing, or attending reunion meetings.

RANDY CHANG – Randy is the head “Janie Groupie”, of course. He has been busy, busy developing his catering business – Aloha Gourmet Catering. He has also really enjoyed playing music and feels fortunate to have experienced things through it like going to the Balkans (Kosovo and Bosnia) five years ago. He played in and produced an album (Manny Fernandez) that was selected for the Hawaii Music Awards and nominated for the Na Hoku Awards. He is involved in a hula production company and also works in his recording studio, having fun making CDs. When he is not doing any of the previous stuff or traipsing off into the woods with Janie, Randy loves playing Grandpa. He and Janie plan on coming out for our Reunion dinner.

ABIGAIL (BASSO) CHASE

– Abbie is part of Tom Ridge’s army – the Department of Homeland Security. And yes, she will confiscate your tweezers if you try to sneak it on the plane in your hand-carry. (Not really.) Actually, Abbie is a Senior Customs Inspector so, she supervises customs inspectors who make sure you’re paying the property duty on all those foreign goods you bought when you traveled abroad. She came with us to Las Vegas last time and had a blast. She has one child, Ruiaiterangi, and loves traveling around the world.

TERENCE CHING – Terence continues with his CPA business, creatively named Terence Ching, CPA. He has been married to Punahou grad, Janice, for 30 years and daughters, Taryn and Stephanie, are attending college. He loves eating, sleeping and watching TV, especially basketball – how about them Pistons! He mentioned that he still maintains a saltwater reef tank and swims laps. So, we are not sure if his tank is that big or his swimming is that minimal. (He probably lets his fingers do the swimming!)

SYLVIAN (CHO) CHO-

MOODY – Many cows and pigs have had their remains slashed and sawed by our small but mighty classmate. When you see her in a dazzling evening dress, it is hard to imagine that she wraps meat at Times Supermarket for a living and is not the glamorous actress she has always aspired to be. But Syl has lived a good life with husband, Fuzzy, a true-to-life stuntman. She spends most of her time these days watching younger son, Chassis play All-Star caliber baseball with OIA East runnerup Kalani and worrying about older son, Racer, who by all accounts is having too much fun away at college. She is hoping that Coach Trap will extend her baseball watching days for at least four more years at UH.

GLEND (WONG) CHUN –

Glenda continues her work as a Room Attendant at the Ilikai Hotel, logging in over 27 years.

She is married to husband Colin who owns the Kapahulu

Poi Shop and they have a daughter, Steffany.

Glenda enjoys traveling (to Japan and Arizona last year) and came with us to Las Vegas last time. She also enjoys going to the spa and will be at the Reunion dinner.

LAVERNE (YAM) CULLEN –

You hungry? See Laverne and her husband, Leo, (married 35 years this November!) and they can take care of your needs. Laverne is the co-owner of You Hungry? Restaurant, across the street from the Convention Center (free promo here). When not restauranting, Laverne keeps extremely busy with a karaoke business, bowling, involvement with the Fraternal Order of Eagles Womens Auxiliary which raises money for various charities, and still finds time to make custom jewelry (like the frogs she made for us when we went to Las Vegas). Now that her son (Leo IV) and daughter (Laticia) are grown, Laverne lavishes her attention on Anuhea, her puppy, and drives Leo ('69 Kamehameha) to his gigs around town.

PETER ENDO – Dr. Endo of Endontics will pull your teeth out for a reasonable price but you need to fly to LA to get it done. Yes, Peter is a practicing dentist on the continent. And, no, he doesn't take any particular pleasure in drilling people's teeth nor does he understand what you are mumbling about when you have all those tubes and cotton in your mouth. He does enjoy traveling and must be traveling a lot because he is married to Judge Colleen Hirai, a UH Lab School grad, who lives in Honolulu. He also loves photography.

JULIENNE (MIKASA)

FILBRICH – Although she is doing great in Manhattan Beach, CA, Juli would very much like to find a nice place in Hawaii so she can "commute" to work in LA. She works for Peerless Systems in product marketing and is married to husband Walter with 2 children. She did attend our 25th and 30th Reunions and keeps in touch with classmates Marianne (Ochi) Kimura and Joanne (Kawamoto) Itano.

HAROLD FUJII – Got any complaints about Hawaiian Airlines being on time? See Harold, as he may be your pilot. Tell him drive faster.

Harold has been with Hawaiian for 17 years now, and has been married to Lorraine ('71 Mid Pac) for 30 years. We figure it was her genes that provided the brainpower for their three children, Lauren (UH Manoa), Larissa (going to UH Med School in the fall), and Jared (going to fly like his dad, but at the University of North Dakota). Even though the guy is getting old, he still tries to surf, but finds it easier to attend high school and UH sporting events. He recently took a family trip to pick up a Volvo in Europe, and visited 6 countries while he was there. Harold joined the rest of us in Las Vegas to celebrate our 50th birthday and he really added to the fun.

PAMELA (HONG) HAMAKADO – Pam is one of a number of our classmates who has taken up the honorable profession of teaching. She has been a DOE 1st grade teacher at Kahakai Elementary in Kona for 16 years. She has been married to Farrington grad, Ron, for 17 years. He works for the State Dept. of Labor. Their son, Len, is a football and tennis player at Konawaena High and is currently in the process of "driving" Pam crazy with learning to drive – that's her wearing his football helmet in the car. Like most of us, she has not hit the Megabucks in Vegas but will keep trying. Unfortunately, she may miss hitting the big one when we all go in November.

LANI (KUWANA)

HARRINGTON – Fourth time Grandma Lani has been busy with 3 jobs. She works for our Reunion Committee as the full-time Treasurer and because we do not pay much ($0), she must also work as secretary for Kamoi Auto Repair and as a receptionist for Dr. Sharon Lawler. She has two children and as mentioned before has 4 grandchildren. She also loves her 3 Maltese doggies and is married to hubbie Courtney (yes, the famous one). Courtney has contributed much time and expertise to our Reunion and we want to thank him for that and for letting Lani spend so much time with us. Why she joined 24 Hr Fitness recently we cannot figure out but she does enjoy going to Las Vegas with Courtney and with the Reunion gang.

CHESTER HEANU – It's rumored that Chester is still a honcho at the State Department of Accounting and General Services (lovable DAGS) as a plumber. He mentioned on his info sheet that he is still married and has 4 grandchildren but that was it.

- You going to haff to talk to him at the July Reunion dinner to find wassup.

ALAN HIGA – Stuff been pretty hot at the UH in the past couple of years with the professor's strike and the firing of Evan Dobelle so, Alan's been the MAN cooling everything off as the A/C guy with UH Facilities Management. He is currently single and has a son, Everett, who is a Click It or Ticket guy with HPD. When he's not forcing students to wear jackets in the lecture halls, Alan enjoys golfing and watching sports.

DAVID HIRAO – David, David, David. "Trust me, I work for the DOT" is a quote that would run chills up your spine when it comes from the smiling lips of David Hirao. Yes, our encyclopedia-reading, karaoke pioneering brainiac is a computer programmer with Linda Lingle's road crew. He is married to Mona (CHO Myung-soon), a church lay leader and has two children and a grandson. He enjoys tennis, jogging and surfing (the Web, of course). He is also active in church activities and attended a 12-week Christian discipleship seminar in Kona 5 years ago. We could say many things about David's colorful career at RHS but ... come to the Reunion dinner and enjoy David in person.

CLIFFORD HONG – Cliff tried snowboarding recently (and luckily didn't break anything), and discovered a real love for the sport. He recently left St. Francis, after having worked there for 27 years as a diagnostic medical sonographer and vascular technologist (whew!), and helped start a private imaging clinic, Honolulu Diagnostic Imaging. He's been married to Steph ('68 Punahou) for 21 years, and their daughter, Jamie goes to Punahou (eh, what happened to supporting public schools?). Anyhow—when not snowboarding and terrorizing people on the slopes, Cliff enjoys playing tennis, running, swimming, and biking (must be in shape, huh?)

STEWART HONG – Stewart is still employed as a Software engineer at Raytheon. He still lives in Virginia and is still single. He did attend the 30th Reunion and we're hoping he'll come back for our 35th in July or join us in Vegas in November.

DAYLE (FUJII) HOOPAI – You come tired just reading what Dayle does. She works full-time as a teacher at Nuuanu Elementary, is director of Early Arrival Service (6:30-8:00 am), is the program coordinator for Drill Team Hawaii, works part-time at Little People Hawaii (no, we don't know what that is, either), works part-time at Outrigger on the Beach as a bell clerk (are you tired yet?), goes often to the mainland to shop or hunt for new shopping malls, helps out plenty at our Reunion meetings, watches volleyball and bowling constantly and takes care of grandchild, Taylor. Whew!!! When did she have time to make her two daughters with husband of 33 years, Ross?

TSULAN (SMITH) HUSTED – Tsulan has been working hard as a teacher with the Beaverton (Oregon) School District for 10 years. She is married to hubby, Tom, who is a teacher consultant with the Oregon Education Association and they have a little girl, Tiana, who apparently must survive massive birthday parties planned by a mastermind mother. She is a die-hard Portland Trailblazer fan and also enjoys football, politics, gardening, movies and traveling. She also loves music and going to concerts at the Waterfront and at the zoo. She will be coming to the Reunion dinner this year so be sure to hook up with her there.

ROBERT ISHIHARA – Robert has been bussing tables at Sun’s Bar-B-Que and Tempura House (not open on Tuesdays) in Las Vegas. Don’t feel bad for him, though, as he owns and operates the place with his wife, Christina, of 5 years. When the gang was in Las Vegas for our 50th birthday celebration, some people made it to his restaurant for lunch, and had nothing but rave reviews for the taste and portions (sounds like an ad for Local Kine Grinds, huh?). Robert won’t be joining us for our reunion in Honolulu, but we’re sure to see him in Las Vegas in November!

WRAY JOSE – After walking the picket line during the recent statewide teachers strike, Wray must have felt good winning the title of State History Teacher of the Year.

At the time of this writing, he is in the running for the national title. Good luck and congratulations! It sure seems like a long time since Wray trudged in front of the parking lot at Moanalua High with his HSTA sign, talking stink about Governor Ben. He still lives in Manoa and likes to spend time at the beach, playing his guitar. He recently had an enjoyable trip to Jalisco, Mexico.

MARY JANE (FLORES) KALAIKAI – Mary Jane has already lived a colorful, fun-filled life if you can figure out her marital status. We had a hard time piecing it together so we’ll just say this: Her current partner is Tom Mills who is a cab driver with Charley’s Taxi and she does not want to get married ever again, no way. She has a daughter, Melissa who is an ’87 RHS grad and has two grandchildren who are on the mainland. She is a self-employed child care provider (but we are not clear about who she cares for). She collects miniature stuff like teeny furniture and tea sets and stills enjoys playing volleyball and going bowling.

Like all of us, she hopes that Yvonne Elliman will play at one of our reunions.

WAYNE KANEKO – Last we heard, Wayne was still working for the City and County as a property tax appraiser and he might have divorced Ronald Suzuki and Brooks Yuen because he is coming to the Reunion dinner by himself.

BEN KAWASAKI – Got sore teet? Ben can drill them back to “not sore”. You can even fly to Hilo to extract that ugly molar because Ben commutes to Hilo when he is not coaching cross country or track. His daughters are doing exceptionally well at running, including Anne being the 2000/01 state cross country and track champ and going to Portland State, Martha going to UH-Hilo and Valerie still at St. Francis High. Since he hasn’t sent a picture yet, you can catch him in his dental ads in the daily papers.

(Yes, he’s ours.)

SANDY (NAKAI)

KERSTEN – Sandy is ditching us again for more exciting travels in July, but may be joining us in Las Vegas in November. Sandy is one of those moms who does a lot of work, and gets paid in gratitude and appreciation, because she drives her youngest, Harry (15, and at Mid Pac), all over the creation, goes to Pac-Five water polo games, cares for (8) mini dachshunds, gardens, travels, tames her back yard, drinks fine tequila, and goes to USC football games. Her husband, Richard (’63 Flintridge Prep), of 18 years, is now retired from Kersten & Associates, and is her companion in doing all of the above, I’m sure. In addition to Harry, Sandy also has a daughter, Deedee (UH Manoa), and a son, Chase (UNLV). It won't be the same without Sandy in July, but we look forward to seeing her in November!

GLENN KIMATA – Glenn is a psychiatrist in Colorado. Bruddah should come home because get plenty mental classmates running around here. You could get rich treating some of them. He is married to Kalani grad, Alison and has two boys. He flyfishes and enjoys watching hockey. If he gets a tape of our Reunion dinner, we are hoping that he can give us a preliminary evaluation on some of our more psychotic classmates.

ELTON KODAMA – After not being seen at several reunions, Elton was able to join us in Las Vegas to celebrate our 50th birthday. Elton is thriving in Tucson, Arizona, owning and operating Ventana Tire, Brake and Auto Services (sorry if we got the name wrong, but your handwriting was like a doctor's). From all accounts, business must be booming in Tucson, since Elton has two locations, and is thinking of opening a third one soon. His three sons are grown and thriving as well—Brandon is teaching at the University of Arizona, Chris is in law school at the U of A, and Joel is doing computer networking at Pima College.

DRUCILLA (KUWATA)

KOIDE – Drucilla is one of only a few certified homemakers in our class. After majoring in Japanese at the UH, she married

Thomas, a Kauai High grad who is now an executive VP for Bank of Hawaii (sorry, but that's not our bank). They have two daughters, both of whom are going to UCLA, one at the UCLA Law School. With no listed hobbies or interests, joining the Reunion Committee might be something Drucilla may want to consider doing.

GARY KONO – Gary is still “going postal” for the US Postal Service.

For 19 years, neither rain nor drizzle nor sunshine has prevented him from getting all those unpaid bills, charge card applications and countless Victoria Secrets catalogues to their anxious recipients. We also appreciate the USPS's attempt to save the US penny by having first class stamps sell for 33, 34 and 37 cents.

CLAUDETTE (CHANG)

KOZUKI – Claudette is a cardiac sonographer at Straub Clinic. We thought she was working underwater or something but we think she does heart ultrasounds??? Let's ask her at the Reunion dinner? She is married to husband Blake, a Waipahu grad and they have two boys, Aaron (RHS grad and mainland college student) and Bryce (a future Rough Rider volleyball all-star). Claudette loves reading and traveling (twice to Japan recently) and lists shopping as her favorite sport.

JOSEPHINE (AKAKA)

KRUSE – Josephine is an insurance clerk for the John H. Connors Insurance Agency. She has been married to hubby, Howard, an electrician and Kailua high grad, for 23 years. They have 2 children and 2 grand children. She wants to do more traveling and has been faithfully attending our last couple of Reunion dinners where she hopes we can have more karaoke in the future.

Fame, fortune and the good life await you ! See page 31 now !

IRIS KURASHIGE – As program coordinator for the Goodwill Industries of Hawaii, Iris certainly believes in the power of work. She has enjoyed working with adults with disabilities and is also involved with Special Olympics. Living in Manoa, she goes to church and enjoys hula and music in her spare time. She has a daughter but no grandchildren yet.

CHERYL (HIRAKI) LEE – As Hawaiian Airlines emerges from bankruptcy, we're hoping that Cheryl has invested wisely in the company she has worked for, like the guy who sold the $41 million block of stocks. As a flight attendant for 30 years, if she got one share for every time she snapped and unsnapped a demonstration seat buckle, she could treat us to our Reunion dinner!!! She is currently married to Leilehua grad, Henry, and has two children currently attending mainland colleges (one for his PhD). She enjoys baking and cooking, walks for exercise and travels to visit her children on the mainland.

MILES LEE – Ever the prankster that he was in school, braddah Miles claims his proudest accomplishment is “having regular bowel movements and still having most of my hair”. As a loan officer with Meridian Mortgage, he can set you up with a low interest loan (942-2224) but be sure to check the small print. He has a daughter that has avoided making him a happy grandpa. He is still skinny and we heard he still loves to play music.

SANDRA (NAGAISHI) LUM – Sandra is currently living in Sunnyvale, California and works as a business rep for Lockheed Martin Missiles and Space Co. (Wow, can we buy tickets to the moon?) She is married to St. Louis grad, Richard, who is an engineer with Agilent Technologies and they have 2 children. She plans to retire in the next few years and wants to live part time in Hawaii and part time in California (by space shuttle?).

WARD MARIANI - When we last wrote about Ward, he was one of Honolulu's finest – a policeman. Since then, he has retired (?) from the force and is a stevedore with McCabe, Hamilton. He is still married to Pearl who is an office manager with Sause Brothers and they have two children. He still enjoys basketball and volleyball but now does some weightlifting, running, and paint ball.

BART MARTINEZ – A Las Vegas transplant, Bart has taken his carpentry skills to the Sin City and has made a good life for himself and his wife of 31 years, Joan. He also has a daughter, Jan. He still does the weight training and we think he still has thoughts about competitive bodybuilding. He was an active member of our previous Reunion Committees and always comes to Reunion Committee meetings when he is in town. With the rise in construction activity in the State recently, we are all hoping Bart will be heading home to live.

GAIL (YAMAMOTO) MCDONALD – It was good seeing Gail in Las Vegas at our Big 5-0 bash. She is still living in Gardena, California and still working at the Union Bank. She has two children and there is a rumor that she has a grandchild on the way. Always well-organized and business-like, Gail has already made plans to retire in 3 years and move to Florida where she will buy a brand new motor home and tour the country.

CYDNI (SIDNEY LOOMIS) MEDEIROS – Over the past 5 years, Cydni has really gotten into running and has completed 7 marathons! Terrific! She still works as a unit supervisor for the Welfare Office and she is still married to Officer Carl Medeiros of the HPD. They have 4 children and now have 2 grandchildren living in Idaho. That's why when Cydni retires, she plans to move to Idaho specifically to be there to spoil them. In the meantime, she also is a gymnastics judge and a church deaconess.

DONNA (YOUNG) MILLER – Got a health problem? You may be calling R.N. Donna to get some telephone advice, as she's been busy doing that as well as working in urgent care at Kaiser. When we went to Las Vegas for our 50th birthday celebration, Donna was called on when one of the passengers on our flight fainted in the aisle, and flight attendants weren't sure what his problem was. Donna and hubby Bryan, a Vice Principal at Aliamanu Middle School have been married for 22 years, and have two sons, Reece (a recent Roosevelt grad—yeah!) and Bret (going into his junior year at Roosevelt). Donna has a very fulfilling life surrounded by wellness and beauty, and still finds time for sewing, crafts, traveling, reading and family.

STEPAHNIE (YIM) MIWA – Stephanie is still a logistics technician at the Pearl Harbor Naval Shipyard. She has married to Kaimuki grad, Lance, who is an Administrator at the shipyard for 25 years. They have two children who require tuition, the reason why Stephanie must continue to work. We've been looking up Logistics Technician in our manual of names and jobs but we haven't been able to find out exactly what it is. So, if you see her at the reunion, everybody corner her and ask her what that really means. Everyone !

MERRILL MIYASAKI – Like watching American Idol, we were all glued to our TV sets to get a possible glimpse of our Teamster classmate, Merrill, walking the picket lines during the past bus strike. Although he has enjoyed the fruits of Brother Mel Kahele's keen strategy and classmate Atta Akana's picket line leadership, Merrill seemed content to play an invisible role in the labor conflict. He has apparently amassed a sizable estate, including valuable real estate, and is planning to do a "Harry Weinberg" on all of us. Hopefully, he will limit his generosity to his next of kin and the '69 Reunion Committee. We will certainly name our 50th Reunion: the Merrill Miyasaki 50th Reunion of the Class of 1969, if that is the case.

LEONARD MORALES – Leonard continues to be the power behind the state of Oregon, as he has been an engineer with the Bonneville Power Administration for 28 years.

Leonard and his wife, Paula ('72 Roosevelt in Portland, Oregon) have been married for 20 years and call Gresham, Oregon home. They have two children, daughter Kristi (26) and son Ryan (who will be graduating from Gresham High School in 2005). In addition to working, Leonard enjoys playing tennis, weightlifting and trading in the stock market (got any hot tips?).

ERNIE MORIKUBO – Better known as Ernest the MC to hundreds of Bon Dance loyalists at the Moiliili Hongwanji festivities, our Ernie is as irreverent as ever. He still lives in the backwoods of Woodlawn with his #3 Boss, Mitsue, who is from Japan. They have 2 boys who attend an "enemy" private school with blue and gold school colors and a daughter who attends La Pietra. (When was their Bon Dance?) Ernie still runs Pacific Woolen, home of the perfect police uniform, as President and Chief Scapegoat. He is still into drinking, music, softball, sex and money (not particularly in that order). Ala Billy Crystal, he will bring his “Yokkoisho” voice to another Reunion dinner as a repeat MC.

WESLEY MUKAWA – Besides going to Vegas as often as possible, classmate Wes is one terrific cook. He has been filling the tummies of the Reunion Committee members at every meeting, and that guy is good! His three children, Kuulei (attending UH Manoa), Ka’ulumaika (in the Air National Guard), and Kala’iokekakahiaka (a recent RHS grad) keep him busy, even though he had to take an early retirement due to disability. You can count on Wes to take on responsibility and to get things done—lucky for the Reunion Committee that we have Wes.

GAYLE (NAMBA) NAKAMA – Gayle has been an office manager and legal assistant for the Law Offices of Blake Okimoto for over 13 years. She lists her marital status as “In Process”, so let’s not go there. She has four children, most of whom are out of school, and two grandchildren. She also has two dogs, Gizmo and Puppy. She will be making the big lifestyle change to becoming a flexitarian. Although we could make interesting guesses as to what that means, our Feng Shui directs that we save our inquiries for the Reunion Dinner.

DOREEN (KANO) NAKAYAMA – Doreen is a document specialist for the Bank of Hawaii (That’s her Bank!) where she has been for 24 years. She has two grown children and a grandchild. In her spare time, she does stamping and other crafts (is that like the crafts in Harry Potter?). She is also one of a few of our classmates that lives in the 2nd City.

DWAYNE NASU – Rugged Dwayne is owner and manager (he manages son Jonathan who works there, too) of Acme Fender (is that the place that Wiley Coyote gets his contraptions from?). He does a superb job on Mercedes and other top-of-the-line cars. This is why he don’t have many of us as his customers because he can skip the bussup cars we drive. He has been married to effervescent Jan, a Waipahu grad, for 34 years. They have two children, one who we mentioned works with Dad. Dwayne is into motorcycling and golf and (Surprise!) he is also interested in cars.

AMANDA (MANALO) NEWSOME – Since we last heard from Amanda, she has started the business she said she would start 5 years ago. It is called the Manalo Service and is a personalized transportation service for Senior citizens. While she is still married to husband , Gary, she became a grandma early last year through daughter, Taryn. She also competed in the recent Honolulu Marathon and was a finisher! Congratulations, Amanda! On top of that, she has also gone on missionary trips to Nepal and Kenya in the last 5 years. You go, girl!

DENISE (HIU) NOYLE – Our former fashion model classmate, Denise, has continued working in the field as a Project Coordinator for her husband’s commercial photography outfit, Ric Noyle Photo Productions. She has been married to Ric for over 28 years and they have two children. Her dreams for retirement are “to live in Waimea or Kohala in a simpler life!” (Is that a Paris Hilton and Nicole Richie kind of simpler life?) In any case, she feels fortunate to have her current life that includes having a great family and a great group of friends.

RONALD OBREY – Ronald is the husband of a “Domestic Goddess” (his words), his wife Diane. They have three children and 8 (yes, 8) grandchildren. He has been a Project Superintendant at Pearl Harbor Naval Shipyard where he received the prestigious Meritorious Civilian Service Award (the highest award for a civilian in the Navy). He plans to move to Maui and mow the lawn at a golf course when he retires. He also stays in touch with Wayne Keliikoa, Coleen Pang, Cyrus Ching and Glenn Kong – sounds a little too dangerous for us!

JANE (KURODA) OHTA –

Currently a resident of Mililani, Jane did not provide us any clues as to her mysterious goings-on in the past five years. So we will be interviewing her at the Reunion dinner since she has already paid to come.

GLEN OKANO – If you nevva buy your gold bangle bracelet from Glen, its too late, Sis. The 100% off sale is ovva. His stuff is choice and will soon become a collector’s item, like Ming’s. But if you beg him (351-4495), he may reconsider and sell you at full retail. He is also a realtor with Prudential Locations and is eager to give you a large discount on his fee when you buy your mansion. He is active on the Reunion Committee, so you can contact him through one of the Committee guys. He’s still living in Manoa with his dog of 9 years, Kanani and his golf clubs.

JO ANN (ODA) OSHIMA – Joda remains the militant part-time teacher who is unafraid to carry the picket sign or to speak out about her unflinching support for public education. She retains her union card thru her 14 years at Nuuanu Elementary. She is married to Farrington grad and attorney, Alan, who is also active in social causes and a strong supporter of our public schools. He has just served a stint as RHS PTSA President. Both of their children attended Roosevelt with Emily now away at a mainland school and Robb having just graduated. She claims to be having a blast working on the Reunion Committee but sometimes we know she probably wants to blast us! She has also gotten into making jewelry and has even started teaching classes at the YMCA. Jo is also the author of many of the highly offensive write-ups in this Slam Book (just kidding. she’s the nice one!).

CHERYL (MIWA) OSUMI –

Cheryl is the SASA (also known as “honcho”) at Kuhio

Elementary School, where she’s worked for 24 years. Husband Shiro (’66 Hatsukaichi—is that a neighbor island school?

Nah, we know it’s a school in Japan) is an electrician with DAGS, where he’s worked for the past 25 years. Cheryl works hard, but when she has time off, she works harder for the Reunion Committee, enjoys traveling, watching football, and shopping. My bet is that you’ll be able to find Cheryl at the reunion in July, but more importantly, she’ll be in Vegas with the rest of us in November.

ROSEANA (DUENAS)

PALMER – Somebody make sure that when we draw names for doorprizes at either reunion, they leave Roseana’s name out, since she won choke prizes in Vegas the last time around. I think she won for coming the furthest, for guessing how much Brian Abe was going to win, etc. She took away nearly the whole doorprize table! (nah, just joking, Roseana). After recovering from the multitude of natural disasters that bombarded Guam, you deserve to win a prize! So, you know that she’s a winner, that she lives on Guam, but do you know that she’s been married to hubby Lee (’59 Aztec) for 25 years? Or that she’s worked at special projects with Pacific Security Alarm for 12 years?

Or that in her spare time, she cares for her 88 year old mom, manages three rental properties, and enjoys sipping wine coolers on the beach while someone else barbecues (and who wouldn't love that?). Finally, when our gal is really stressed out, she hops on a plane and visits friends anywhere from California to New Mexico. Look for her to be in her relaxed mode at both the reunions in July and in November!

GILBERT PELLETIER – It seems as if Gilbert has retired from his job as a firefighter. He now spends most of his time taking care of his mother. We look forward to seeing him at the Reunion Dinner.

SALLIE (EKERN) PRICE – A former Teacher of the Year at Idyllwild Elementary, Sallie has continued on as a teacher in the Hemet Unified School District. She is currently married to husband Timothy and has two children through a previous marriage. Besides teaching, Sallie works in the prayer ministry.

PAMELA (FREND) PUNIHAOLE – 5 kids and 7 grandkids means that Sista Pam has been plenty busy the past couple of years. She also completed her Early Childhood Education BS at Chaminade University. Right On! And she is super proud of being a Pa'u rider in the 2001 Hollywood Celebrity Xmas Parade and the 2003 Chicago Thanksgiving Parade. She lives in Kona, works as a Cast Manager/Local Coordinator for TPFFI (not sure what that is, either) and has been married to husband Clayton for 23 years. She came with us to Las Vegas but she still would like to see more comedy at our Reunion functions (how much more comedy can Brian Abe be???).

MARLEEN (MENDEZ) QUINT – Bay Area transplant Marleen is a tough cookie. She survived two operations in the last 5 years. She has just moved from Richmond to the neighboring community of El Cerrito into a bigger house with husband of 18 years, Malcolm who works for BART and a daughter who is a high schooler. She works as a Women's Health Advocate and enjoys music, crochet and acting.

LISA (LEE) REED – In the past, we have known Lisa as a classmate, musician, bossy Yearbook editor, stylish dresser, cheerleader and much more. These days we know her as wife, mom, bossy Reunion Committee member, friend and co-worker. Through it all, Lisa has always thrived and lived a full life. She is still married to hubby, Bob, a consultant, and continues to harass her two daughters, including getting a job at Mid Pac to be "close" to her younger daughter's educational progress. She stays close to friends like Denise (Hiu) Noyle and Heidi (Yuen) Berman and all us Reunion Committee types. She and sister Laurie and their friends have established a scholarship fund at Roosevelt in memory of her Mom, Mrs. Evelyn Lee, who was an RHS grad and a teacher at Roosevelt for over 20 years, including many years as the yearbook adviser. Mahalo, Lisa.

Do our kids qualify?

GERALDINE (SIMOES)

ROMERO – Geraldine continues to slave as an Accounting Supervisor at the law firm of Rush, Moore, etcetera, etcetera. She has two kids and now has a grandchild, which is one of her hobbies. She loves to pick opihi and makes bootleg liquor. She still collects pueos and is working on her house when she is not spending quality time with her family.

Your chance to win millions !

CHERYL (KAU) SAITO – It seems that Cheryl has left her job at Kamehameha schools (Bishop Estate?) and is now a homemaker (like Drucilla?).

She is still married to husband Ted, a Kaimuki High grad and an engineer with the City & County. Their son Kyle is going to be a senior at Roosevelt (Yea!!!) Cheryl and Ted will be at the Reunion Dinner and may be jetting to Vegas with us in November.

GLENN SATO – Glenn should get an award for filling out all of the forms that we sent to all of you. Yes, he did all three of them.

He is still single and is now retired as a Civil Engineer III from the State Department of Transportation after 21 years of service. He has spent a good deal of time taking care of his mother who has Alzheimer's disease.

JEWEL (KAHOONEI)

SCOGGINS – Jewel has been a Member Services Rep for the Honolulu Federal Credit Union for the last 8 years. Her daughter, Julianne, is currently attending Loyola Marymount University in L.A. Aside from servicing those service-hungry credit union folks and taking care of her daughter, Jewel makes time to take up hula.

GERALD SEKIMURA – Our class Prez is still basically the same – a patent lawyer in Piedmont, California. He is still married to wife Joy and their son, Douglas, now attends UCLA and daughter, Wendy, is at Piedmont High. Gerry still rocks on the piano and guitar (like in the Insights days) and enjoys fishing and golf in his spare time. We are looking forward to greeting him at the Reunion dinner.

RUSSELL SHIROMA – With a hot real estate market, Russ is the Man for commercial real estate. He does all kinds of stuff for Marcus & Associates, including property management. His wife of 34 years, the always smiling Charlene is also in commercial real estate with Colliers Monroe Friedlander. But all of us know that even back from his days with the Calientes, Russ is first and foremost into performing as a musician. He still does gigs, including country and western. Yeehaw! His other (third after Charlene and music) love is golf.

LESLIE (KOMORI) SILVA –

It's hard to believe that Leslie is a Grandma! But she became one last year. She is also paying for her two children to finish college. She is married to husband Jim who is a Sales Associate at Tony Honda. Leslie is a Loan Executive with Mortgage Resources, Inc., so, no sked call her if you like buy that matchbook townhouse in Kapolei. She also digs riding with Jim on his custom "hog", (that's a Harley for you uncultured folk). She has also taken up the high stakes sport of shopping.

JOHN TAKARA – As someone who was supposed to study bugs (PhD in Entomology), it is just a little surprising that John has been a financial planner for the last 19 years. And he's good at it. Wife Liane is a Punahou grad and currently a teacher with the DOE. They have two children attending the buff and blue colored school. As any good financial planner would do, John is working and saving for "anticipated college expenses". He enjoys fishing and snow skiing.

GLENN TAKEDA – Glenn is still a carpenter with the City & County of Honolulu. He has been married to wife Gail, a Farrington grad, for 30 years and has two children, both Roosevelt grads. Glenn is still trying to catch the elusive ulua and he still plays slow pitch softball. For someone who constantly thinks about retiring, he seems pretty active. He goes to Vegas for R & R and joined us at the Big 5-0 Vegas trip.

CONSTANCE (MATSUI) TANAKA – A former account executive with Estee Lauder and a former senior assistant buyer for Macy's acquisition, Liberty House, Connie is currently on sabbatical – big word for “just cruising”. But she lives a full life of reading, wine tasting, cooking, refinishing furniture, traveling, volunteering and going to the entire list of UH sporting events. Fortunately, her hubby, Ray-Stan, is president and principal broker for Island Estates, a real estate and property management firm and can provide her with a life of leisure.

WANETTE (CHANG) TANAKA – Nettie is a speech/language/hearing specialist for the Kamehameha Schools. She is married to husband Stanley, a Kaimuki grad who is a senior VP at Territorial Savings. They have two children, Kelsey, an analyst at Warner Brothers and Tyler, attending Seattle University. She did not list any interests, hobbies or sports so, you will need to find all that out from her at the Reunion dinner.

BRIAN TANIGUCHI – Mr. Honorable Senator has been busy, busy, busy spending all your hard-earned tax money as Chairman of the Senate Ways and Means Committee. He has been on Linda Lingle's 10 Most Wanted List for over a year. He claims to pass a balanced budget every year but we are not sure the guy is balanced mentally either. What sane person would run for office for 24 years? We sympathize with his lovely wife, Jan, an Aiea grad and UH employee (who has “No Comment” on the recent overthrow of President Evan Dohelle). Both of his children are Roosevelt grads. Brian also works part-time for the teal bench bank that was recently taken over by a bank that is supposedly run by a collie. He is also the Recording Secretary for our Reunion Committee because we didn't want him balancing our budget as the Treasurer.

STEPHEN TERANISHI – His name is Stephen, he lives Kaneohe and he wears a size large T-Shirt. Dat's it.

KAREN (MORISATO) TERUYA – Karen loves being an IT Specialist with the Department of Defense (Navy) so much that she seems unwilling to retire any time soon. (Just joking!)

Truthfully though, she has been married to husband Carl for 22 years and he is an accountant. It is not clear whether she is still raising guppies but she still is an active member of our Reunion Committee and has attended almost all of our Reunion events.

STEVEN THOMAS – Beer-crazy Steve, is a partner with the law firm of Case, Bigelow and Lombardi. He got divorced since we last saw him but he still likes to play with his son and works at being a Daddy. Weekends (and possibly weekdays, too,) will find Steve scrumming for the “football” in a rugby game and drinking beer through the yohoho's of his (team)maties. (What language are you speaking, brah?) In his sober moments, he is still the same old unpredictable jokester that we have come to love or tolerate. We love you, Man!

BARBARA (MATSUOKA)

TOME – Barbara continues to run the IRS, having worked there for 22 years now. Her daughters, Kristin (a recent UH nursing graduate who is looking for employment), and Lee Ann (a current UH student), and husband, Wayne ('67 Maryknoll) keep her life busy. She looks great, although she claims that she's been trying to motivate herself to exercise. Besides aging gracefully (like the rest of us), Barbara has traveled through the Pacific Northwest from Eugene, Oregon to Victoria and Vancouver, British Columbia in the past five years. She hasn't committed to joining us in November to Vegas, but will be there to see fellow classmates in July.

GERALD TOYAMA –

Mellow and unassuming, Gerald is a well-established pottery maker, doing the craftsfair circuit as Pauoa Valley Pottery and teaching ceramics at Kalani High School. He is married to wife Jewel (22 years) and has 3 children, the oldest a champion wrestler at Iolani. He also loves and coaches volleyball and enjoys cooking and running when he is not creating with the clay.

MILES TSURUOKA – Helloooo!

If you didn't know that Miles has been a systems engineer with Verizon for the last 21 years, we need to reach out and touch you. He is married to wife Jackie who works for City Bank and has three children, all going to two of the terrific public schools in the Roosevelt complex (Manoa El and Stevenson Middle) and hopefully on to Rough Riderville. When he isn't trying to get that nasty static off your phone, he is coaching youth soccer for his kids' teams (we assume). He also listed golf as an interest. You should probably call him directly because he gave us some static about possibly not coming to our Reunion dinner.

NADINE (FERNANDEZ)

WONG – We were pleasantly surprised to learn that Nadine ran for Mrs. Hawaii and can't understand how the judges could not have picked her for the title. She did, however, win the Mrs. Spirit Award and that's terrific! She devoted 32 years to a finance company but left in 2002 to take care of her Mom who is now 84 years old. She is married to husband John, a Damien grad and Finance Manager. She loves to golf and is learning Japanese. She also dreams about being the senior host on QVC and would have wanted to emcee our Reunion dinner but she couldn't make it this time.

CHRIS WYKES – Do you need your ceiling cleaned? Try look up at your ceiling! Get one big puka by the water stain? If this is you, call Chris. He has a ceiling cleaning and repair business. He'll get it done. He also collects toys and digs all kinds of sports. He just wants to enjoy life and do some traveling. You can check wassup with Chris at the Reunion dinner.

JOAN (TAGASHIRA)

WYLIE – While the image of Joan as a bass guitarist for a rock band is emblazoned in our minds, she actually is a totally multifaceted person. She has studied German, linguistics and speech pathology. She has also taught at the U of Guam and has been an East West Center grantee. She loves baseball, Star Trek, has two cats and just learned how to kayak 2 years ago. She is married to husband Mike who is a clinical psychologist, Associate professor in psychology and works for the State Department of Health. She currently works for the UH Department of Speech Pathology and Audiology.

IRIS (LEE) YAFUSO – Formerly a VP with GE Capital, Iris is currently a Construction Loan Manager for the Bank of Hawaii. She is married and still loves to travel and read. She listed football and volleyball as sports she engages in but the football part seems a little sketchy. We're not sure if she is referring to the recent formation of the women's football league in Honolulu. When she's not making other people in shoulder pads eat Astroturf, she also enjoys the zen of flower arranging.

VINCENT (THE REUNION CHAIRMAN) YIM – Lovable Vincent has been elected (sentenced?) for life to be our Reunion Chairman. He loves golf, he loves his wife Wendy and he loves his work but not necessarily in that order. He has really been the driving force behind our last couple of Reunion events, including our Big 5-0 Las Vegas get-together. Vincent is relentless in whatever he does. He organizes everything, reminds people about the meetings, donates the use of his office for our meeting, stores all our stuff in between Reunions, provides us with food and has that touch of madness that makes him a great leader. He's going to be there wheeling the rest of us in with our oxygen machines for our 100th Reunion. Mahalo, Vincent, you're one special guy!

GLENN YOKOYAMA – Glenn is a Senior Project Engineer with Dick Pacific (yea, Dick – why bodda you?) He has been married to Sharon, a now retired school teacher, for 12 years. His consuming passion is golf which has overtaken coin-collecting recently. He also helps take care of his parents.

ROY YONAOSHI – Roy is a Vice President for Corporate Leasing at City Bank, soon to be merged with Central Pacific Bank. He has 2 children and a grandchild. He is one of those golf guys who does tennis on the side and he also enjoys traveling. A long time Manoa resident, Grandpa Roy will be there at the Reunion dinner to swap golf tales with whoever is willing to listen.

CANDACE (LOOK) YOUNG – Candace did not fill out her info, but lucky for her we know people who know her, and we're good a making up stuff. Candace has been teaching at Iolani for a long time now, and if she hasn't changed her position, she was teaching math to fourth graders there. The youngest of her three children, daughter Lana ('03 Iolani) is enjoying college life at Claremont McKenna. Sons Rick (must be about 26 or 27) and Jantzen (sorry if we spelled it wrong—no forget that she nevah fill out the form!) both graduated from Santa Clara University, and have jobs here in Hawaii (but we can only guess what kind of jobs, since she nevah fill out the form). Husband Richard (must be she's been married to him about 30 years or more) also is an Iolani grad (was he a '68? '67?). So, okay—our info wasn't so accurate. Anyway—look for Candace at the reunion in July to ask her why she nevah fill out the form, and to get more accurate info about her.

DOUG YOUNG – Artist Doug wasn't as lucky as braddah Cliff Hong when it came to snowboarding, as he was in a recent accident while snowboarding in Canada, and had to extend his vacation by several weeks to recover from a punctured lung. We're glad he's back in commission, and able to join wife, Babs (Punahou) and children Jhana (Punahou) and Reiki (Ma'ema'e). Besides tearing up the slopes, Doug enjoys creating art for Young Hawaii Works of Art, raising his family, and surfing (maybe water is better than snow, huh?). Anyway, look for a fully recovered Doug at the reunion in July. We're glad you're okay, Doug!

25th Reunion Saturday, August 6, 1994 Oahu Country Club

Welcome!

Our 25th Class Reunion is now upon us! The Reunion Committee thanks all of you who have joined us in this fun and memorable event. We send our aloha and best wishes to those who could not make it tonight.

We have worked hard to plan Reunion activities that we felt you would enjoy. Tonight's get-together with a group photograph, "slam book" with as many pictures as we could find and a networking yellow pages section, a Reunion T-shirt, a service project to benefit our alma mater (recycling), and a possible class trip to Las Vegas are some of the things that we have been able to do. Enjoy!

Riley Lee, seen here with Jeff Peterson at Borders, Ala Moana, began playing the shakuhachi in 1971. He is the recipient of two of the oldest and most venerated lineages of traditional shakuhachi, which can be traced back to the Zen Buddhist komusô, or "priests of nothingness" of the Edo period in Japan. In 1980, he became the first non-Japanese to attain the rank of dai shihan or Grand Master Performing in Denver. Not sure which one is Riley cause of the baskets over their heads. How come dat?

Riley and his wife, Patricia. They also have twin daughters: Aiyana and Marieke. We don't have pictures of them.

With Cheryl (Miwa) Osumi and Jeff Peterson. Jeff plays at Michelle's in Waikiki. Go see him.

The CD that Riley donated to this reunion is "Maui Morning", a Hoku Award finalist. This is the first shakuhachi and guitar combination.

Riley first heard the shakuhachi in 1967 while attending Roosevelt High School. It was on an LP recording brought home by his elder brother. About the same time, his Chinese father gave him a dongxiao, a Chinese flute whose ancestry is shared with the shakuhachi. The rest, as they say, is history.

'Tis with hearts full of pride,
dear Alma Mater,
we rise and sing to thee and pledge to keep thy colors high through all the years to be.
To thy name we promise to be loyal,
ever faithful, ever true;
Roosevelt, to thee our song shall be -

All Hail! Hail! Hail!
