Roosevelt High School Reunion Committee

Good eats, lotsa fun

By Harold Fujii, NASCAR Driver Wannabe

Fun had by all - tasty buffet, main dish: prime rib roast beef with shrimp scampi - very ono.

"Mixer" game was an intermediate school favorite: closest to the wall, everyone picked a partner and was given a silver dollar, they both tossed it at a wall, the one closest, won the other person's dollar and moved on to the next round, the loser became a spectator. After multiples rounds, Dayle Hoopai won 100 silver dollars. Do you know how heavy that is?

Randy Chang was a superb MC and kept us entertained and laughing. Thank you to Vince and everyone who donated the excellent prizes.

After the banquet, it was off to the hospitality room for a karaoke session - as you all know, we have some talented classmates. Thank you so very much to Ipo Cullen and her extended ohana for the karaoke and sound system.

Another highlight was that a dozen or so of us went to a go-kart racing park and we had loads of fun racing and banging into each other.

Played til we were pooped

By Lisa Chang, Games Chair

Lisa Chang could not have found a better co-chair. Nellis Kunieda did it all. And Nella Wella was the brain-child behind Wheel of Fortune, Price is Right and Let's Make a Deal. Great prizes like RHS logo golf shirts, windbreakers, t-shirts, hats, etc. Lisa Charo Dizzy Lizzy Vanna White was kept busy handing them out.

Ate til we waddled

By Wes Mukawa, Pupu Party Chair

Oh man, the pupu party had so much food and drinks, catered by Aloha Specialties. We had a party every night.

Games by Lisa Chang and Nellis Kunieda. Mixed in with all this was story telling all night long. That means no time limit.

And, of course, Karaoke Night too. This time the guys won! A big aloha to Ipo and Leo Cullen for the set up.

All of it happening in the hospitality room. Simply great fun.

From the Chair

By Vincent Yim, Reunion Committee Chair

Hi Rough Riders,

Another year has gone by. The kids are married and they call us Grandma and Grandpa. It was great to see old friends and spend 5 days reminiscing about the good old days.

Our 55th Birthday Bash in Vegas was a big success and everyone wants to know when and where we are going again. The committee just approved another trip for next year. We're also working on a 40th Reunion for later.

Stay tuned for more information. Hope to see you at both these events!

Hail to the reunion Committee for another wonderful trip.
